APAC Investment Banking Department – Global Markets Solutions Group (GMSG) Summer Analyst

Description
Whether executing an Initial Public Offering (IPO), a debt offering or a leveraged buyout, our Global Markets Solution Group (GMSG) integrates Credit Suisse’s expertise in Sales and Trading and in Investment Banking, offering clients seamless advice and sophisticated solutions.

GMSG originates, structures and executes public and private placement of equities, investment-grade and non investment-grade debt and related products. The environment is market-driven and reflects that of a trading desk and requires innovative, creative team members.

Credit Suisse training programs provide outstanding exposure to a variety of financial products and industries. As a Summer Analyst, you’ll be given responsibilities including analyzing companies using various financial techniques and examining the impact of a transaction on a client’s capital structure. If you are interested in working with clients on complex, innovative financing and risk management solutions in a fast-paced environment with immediate access to market information, our Global Markets Solutions Group might be right for you.

Professionals in the Global Markets Solutions Group work across a wide range of product areas. Intern opportunities primarily exist in the two featured groups:

- Debt Capital Markets
- Equity Capital Markets

Summer Analysts are formally reviewed at the mid and end points of the summer, and offers are made after the program to individuals identified as exceptional performers.

Positions are available in Hong Kong.

Training
You will attend a one day company orientation followed by a week of training. Your learning experience will continue through the summer speaker series, where you’ll hear from senior line representatives across the divisions. To help you determine your strengths and plan your career, Summer Analysts are matched with mentors within Investment Banking, who provide advice and guidance throughout the summer. You will also participate in networking events and firm-wide events that will help ensure that you are exposed to all the areas within the bank and understand the big picture of a global investment bank. The summer is structured to have a balance of work, social events and networking opportunities.
Qualifications
To apply for this summer analyst role, you must be in your penultimate year of an undergraduate or master’s program (graduating in December 2015 or May/June 2016). Credit Suisse is noted for the diversity of its employees, but seeks candidates with a common set of abilities – highly motivated and creative individuals who have demonstrated academic achievement, and have the ability to work independently and as a member of a team. We’ll be looking at your potential, your ability, your academic background and your extracurricular activities. We’re looking to build future leaders who add fresh perspectives to our business.

Whatever your background, you’ll need to be:

- A leader who engenders loyalty, assumes responsibility and mobilizes others
- A critical thinker with excellent problem-solving skills
- A proactive self-starter who achieves significant results
- A supportive and adaptable team member who can build strong relationships
- An articulate communicator who also recognizes the importance of listening
- Principled and committed to the highest standards of ethical behavior
