1. Name of Position(s)/ Programme(s)

Internship

2. Type of Position(s)/ Programme(s)(e.g. Graduate Job, Internships, etc)

Internship

3. THE PROGRAM

The Hang Lung Internship Program is designed to nurture the young elite through on-the-job training and practical work. Interns will be posted in one of our departments to acquire relevant knowledge and develop professional skills, both of which are crucial for future career success.

Winter Internship
4 – 6 weeks | From December to January

Summer Internship
8 weeks | From July to August

4. REQUIREMENTS

Requirements
We welcome non-final year university students with the following attributes and competencies to join our program:

- Passion for a long-term career development in the property industry
- Demonstrable leadership qualities
- Enthusiasm for teamwork
- Excellent analytical thinking
- Excellent communication skills with proficiency in English, Cantonese, and Putonghua

5. Application method

Email to intern@hanglung.com
Hang Lung Management Trainee

1. Name of Position(s)/ Programme(s)

Management Trainee

2. Type of Position(s)/ Programme(s)(e.g. Graduate Job, Internships, etc)

Graduate Job

3. THE PROGRAM

Our 18-month program provides our Management Trainees with abundant learning opportunities to gain all-round exposure and receive on-the-job training in various business functions within the Company in both our Hong Kong and Mainland China portfolios. Customized training curriculum will also strengthen your management skills as well as business acumen. Throughout the program, Top Management of Hang Lung, Senior Executives from different departments and Human Resources coaches will offer strong guidance and coaching to Trainees, facilitating their learning and bringing their potential into full play.

4. REQUIREMENTS

We welcome top-notched university graduates with the following attributes and competencies to join our program:

- Passionate for a long-term career development in the property industry
- Eager to gain solid work experience in our Group’s property development and management in Hong Kong and the Mainland
- Enjoy job rotations to different business functions within our Group
- Strong people and leadership skills with excellent analytical thinking
- Excellent communication skills with proficiency in English, Cantonese and Putonghua

5. Application method

Online application