VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT
Foreign National Student Intern Program
U.S. Consulate General Hong Kong

The U.S. Consulate in Hong Kong is seeking individuals for the Foreign National Student Intern Program in our Public Affairs Section. The target start date is January 2020 or June 2020.

Open To: All interested candidates who are Hong Kong permanent residents.

Position: 2-3 positions in the Public Affairs Section

* Interns will rotate in the different offices within the section.

Opening Date: October 18, 2019

Closing Date: November 4, 2019

Length of Hire/Work Hours: Open year-round for periods of 59 days. The exact internship periods and the hours per week will be arranged between the individual intern and the Public Affairs Section. The Public Affairs Section is flexible on the working hours per week for every intern, depending on the intern’s school schedule.

What It Is

The U.S. Consulate General’s Foreign National Student Intern Program is designed for students who are permanent residents of Hong Kong or Macau. The program provides students with educational and cross-cultural experience in foreign affairs, working in the Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Consulate General. There are no benefits attached to this internship and no compensation, nor any future employment rights. The program is open to all students and provides the opportunity to work for a short period (not more than six months) in the Consulate to gain experience in various areas of foreign policy and public diplomacy.

Who We Are

The U.S. Consulate General Hong Kong and Macau is comprised of various U.S. Government agencies. The U.S. Department of State, the primary presence at the Consulate, is the official international relations arm of the President of the United States. The Department of State is responsible for formulating, implementing and supporting U.S. foreign policy, assisting U.S. citizens abroad and managing the human and material resources that provide the platform for U.S. foreign policy. Members of the Department's Foreign Service and Civil Service are engaged in issues such as conflict resolution, nuclear non-proliferation, human rights and democracy, environmental issues, international trade, public diplomacy, and the promotion and protection of American interests and businesses abroad. Department of State employees are also involved in support and management issues -- improving logistical systems to get the best possible value for tax dollars.

Program Requirements

The Student Intern is Not Considered a Federal Employee
A student participating under this program is not considered to be a Federal employee of the U.S. Consulate for any purpose other than injury compensation or laws related to the Tort Claims Act.

No Compensation
No compensation or benefits are offered in connection with program. A performance evaluation report will be provided at the end of the internship upon request.

No Creditable Service
Participation and service in the Foreign National Student Intern Program is NOT creditable for leave accrual or any other employee type benefits.

Minimum Eligibility Criteria

Eligibility Criteria in General
Only students who are the permanent residents in Hong Kong are eligible for the intern program, and who are enrolled in a Hong Kong university, college, or junior college of not less than half-time.

Definition of Student
Eligible students must also meet the definition of a student, pursuant to Title 5 USC 3111, as follows:
"3111. For the purpose of this section, 'student' means an individual who is enrolled, not less than half-time, in a high school, * trade school, technical or vocational institute, junior college, college, university or comparable recognized educational institution. An individual who is a student is deemed not to have ceased to be a student during an interim between school years if the interim is not more than 5 months and if such individual shows to the satisfaction of the Embassy that the individual has a bona fide intention of continuing to pursue a course of study or training in the same or different educational institution during the school semester (or other period into which the school year is divided) immediately after the interim."

*NOTE: All Foreign National Student Intern Program applicants must have graduated from high school or equivalent secondary school prior to beginning their internship.
Potential
The student must have demonstrated potential to accomplish the type of work to be performed, as demonstrated by transcripts and/or courses taken.

Transcript and Permission
The student must be in good academic standing at his or her current educational institution and provide a certified transcript to verify it and must provide written permission from the educational institution in which the student is enrolled to participate in the Foreign National Student Intern Program.

Certifications
The student must receive security and medical certificates once selected for the program and before starting to work. The selected applicant is responsible for the expenses to obtain the medical certificate.

Medical Insurance
There is no medical insurance covered for the student.

Types of Assignments
Interns can be assigned duties to include: research; writing reports and/or correspondence; analysis of international issues; assisting with the design, planning and implementation of public outreach activities; creating content for social media; graphic design; assisting with the visits of U.S. officials; and administrative duties.

Selection Process
1. Once the applications are collected, the Human Resources Office reviews them.
2. Selected candidates will be contacted for interviews by the Consulate.
3. Once all personnel procedures are completed, then preliminary selection(s) are made, the Human Resources Office will send an official letter extending an offer to participate in the program to all those selected. This letter will include information on the position, the dates of the program (will be arranged between the student and the employing section).
4. Selected candidate will be required to undergo medical and background checks.
5. Final selection is contingent on passing medical and security checks.

To Apply By Email
Interested candidates for this position must submit the following for consideration of the application no later than November 4, 2019:
1. Universal Application for Employment as a Locally Employed Staff or Family Member (DS-174)
2. Gratuitous Service Agreement
3. Student Statement of Interest
4. Letter of Permission
5. Certificate of Studentship (This can be submitted after the deadline if necessary.)
6. Academic Record (Optional)

Submit Application To:

Completed applications should be submitted by email to the U.S. Consulate General Hong Kong.
Application will not be considered without full submission of documents:

Human Resources Office hrohongkong@state.gov

CLOSING DATE FOR THIS POSITION: November 4, 2019

The U.S. Mission in Hong Kong provides equal opportunity and fair and equitable treatment in employment to all people without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation, marital status, or sexual orientation. The Department of State also strives to achieve equal employment opportunity in all personnel operations through continuing diversity enhancement programs.

The EEO complaint procedure is not available to individuals who believe they have been denied equal opportunity based upon marital status or political affiliation. Individuals with such complaints should avail themselves of the appropriate grievance procedures, remedies for prohibited personnel practices, and/or courts for relief.
BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITIONS

Interns will rotate in the different offices within the section. Their work may include any of the following:

--Support EducationUSA’s goals to promote U.S. higher education and American culture. Specific duties would include social media outreach, presentations to international students on U.S. higher education, data management, alumni coordination, developing and researching informational materials, compiling scholarship information, and developing educational advising resources.

--Support the Mission’s internet-related public outreach programs, particularly the Mission’s online community. Specific duties would include drafting content, developing and producing videos for the Consulate’s YouTube channel, analyse statistics, arranging Web chats, and improving the visual design (and impact) of social media platforms. The intern would also be encouraged to make suggestions to improve existing social media platforms and devise new, creative programming.

--Assist the Information Section in providing media support for outreach programs; collect and translate press clippings of news articles in the Hong Kong press about the Consul General and high-ranking visitors from the USG; take photos at the events organized by the Public Affairs Section. The intern will also provide support for media activities involving Consulate personnel or other U.S. officials, as directed. The intern may also be asked to undertake specific projects, such as a review of TV programs popular among young people, and suggest further outreach activities.

--Assist the Cultural Section in planning, coordinating and supporting the Consulate’s Speaker, Film and Cultural Programs. The intern may undertake specific projects and visual design assignments, and suggest cultural outreach programs, draft memos, and accompany speakers or Consulate personnel to cultural programs.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

1. Academic Major: Any area of study with good analytical skills and IT skills; background knowledge of education, mass communication, journalism or media, political science and/or international relations, design and marketing, as well as knowledge of Hong Kong civil society.

2. Level 4 (Fluency) in English is required. (English will be tested at the time of interview.)