Summer Internship (2024)

The Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) is now offering internship to undergraduates to equip them with practical work experience and general understanding of the HKMA’s roles and functions. The duration of the internship is normally between June and August.

Requirements

- Undergraduates, preferably penultimate year students, or students enrolled in Master’s Degree courses, with excellent academic results
- Broad general knowledge, high versatility and good analytical ability
- Good interpersonal, presentation and communication skills
- Well-versed in computer applications including MS Word, Excel and PowerPoint
- A team player, ready to take on challenges, highly motivated and with keen interest in central banking work
- Excellent command of English and Chinese

How to apply

Completed application should reach the HKMA on or before 17 February 2024 (Hong Kong time). Applicants should ensure their applications reach the HKMA via the designated submission channel(s) well before the stated closing time, taking into account circumstances such as internet delay or file size restriction. Those not contacted by the HKMA within two months from the close of application should consider their applications filed for future reference.

Personal data provided by applicants will be used strictly in accordance with our personal data policies, a copy of which will be provided upon request. You may contact the Recruitment Officer at 55/F., Two International Finance Centre, 8 Finance Street, Central, Hong Kong.

The HKMA is an equal opportunities employer. More information on the HKMA can be found at the website https://www.hkma.gov.hk.

The Online Application System is scheduled to perform regular system maintenance from Hong Kong time 6:00 a.m. to 8:00 a.m. every Wednesday. During this time, online application will not be available.